Men of St. Andrew

from Randy Werre

I want to thank all of you for pitching in and hosting a great coffee hour for Mother's Day. Although we had to be reminded by Father David that it was a "no-brainer" that the men should take care of Mother's Day, we proved that we, as men, excel at no-brainers.

Every one of us has seen and been amazed at what the women of our church do. Time after time, they find funds for church needs. They "git 'er done." It's time the men stepped up and contribute a little, too. We have an immediate need to replace the kitchen dishwasher. It had lived its expected life when we bought the church 10 years ago. A stainless steel replacement has been found for $600-700.

I'm asking that each of us dig into our wallets and retrieve that folded "mad money" and give $20, $50, or even $100 for this cause. All gifts can be receipted for tax purposes.

Contact Randy Werre (850-291-1551) with any questions you may have. A "CASCADE" collection container has been placed in the hall.

The Holy Martyrs Alexander and Antonina the Virgin

Saint Antonina was from the city of Krodamos (Asia Minor). She was arrested for being a Christian, and was brought before the governor Festus. He urged her to worship the pagan gods, promising to make her a priestess of the goddess Artemis. But the saint bravely confessed Christ, and she urged the governor to renounce the worship of demons in the form of idols. Festus gave orders to strike the saint on the face and lock her up in prison.

The martyr spent all her time at prayer, she ate and drank nothing, but then she heard the voice of God, "Antonina, fortify yourself with food and be brave, for I am with you." When they led her before the governor again, the martyr continued to stand up for the Christian Faith and to denounce the pagans.

The governor decided to give the holy virgin over for defilement by soldiers, but the Lord inspired one of them, Saint Alexander, to save the holy virgin. He sought permission to go in to her on the pretext that he might be able to convince her to obey the governor's will. Saint Alexander then suggested that she put on his military attire and flee. Saint Antonina was afraid, but the Lord ordered her to agree.

No one recognized her dressed as a soldier, and she walked out of prison. The soldiers sent by Festus found Saint Alexander alone in the cell. He would not respond to the questions of the governor, and so he was tortured and mercilessly beaten. Through the inspiration of the Lord Jesus Christ, Saint Antonina also came to stand before Festus.

Soldiers cut off their hands, then they smeared them with pitch and threw them into a pit where a fire was burning. When the fire went out, they threw snakes into the pit, so that Christians would not be able to gather up the bones of the martyrs. Returning home, Festus became numb, and was able neither to eat nor to drink. He died after seven days of terrible torment.

From the Desert Fathers

"Let your thoughts be ever in the kingdom of heaven and soon you will possess it as a heritage."

(Abba Hyperechius)
